

SPECIAL COUNCIL

March 17, 2022

Mayor Kling called the meeting to order at 7:00 a.m.

Clerk made note that Councilmembers Rodriguez, Bruner, Jangula, Haverfield, Bower were present for roll call and that Councilwomen Levi was absent.

Clerk's Note: Councilwomen Levi arrived at 7:16 AM

Item #1-1. - Idaho Horse Park RV Expansion Project

Curtis Homer opened this item with an introduction to the needs of the Idaho Horse Park

Paula Cook presented on the economic impact of the horse park

George King presented on shows the horse park hosts and the size of them

Sherri Boardman presented on presented on costs and revenue projections

Council had questions for horse park members

Clerk's Note: Councilman Bower left at 7:47 AM and later rejoined via Teams

Item #1-2. - Planning & Zoning Items

Rodney Ashby presented on which projects currently are required to go to design review

Planning and Zoning Commissioner Ron Van Auker, Jr. gave input on what industrial customer are looking for when then build

Industrial Design Review

Zoning Code for Multi-family Parking

Discussion about possible input and changes to parking code for Multi-family parking

Conclusions of Law

City Attorney Joe Borton presented on what criteria can be used to approve or deny a land use decision

Item #1-3. - Boise Rescue Mission Nampa Men's Shelter Update

Bill Roscoe gave an update on Men's shelter in Nampa closing which were:

Number of homeless men staying has declined

Cost of keeping mission open to homeless

Rescue Mission Office staff will remain, and property will be maintained for the time being in case a future need arises.

Clerk's Note: Councilwomen Levi left at 9:04 AM

MOVED by Haverfield and SECONDED by Rodriguez to adjourn the meeting at 9:09 a.m. The mayor declared the

MOTION CARRIED

Passed this 18th day of April 2022.

MAYOR

ATTEST:

CITY CLERK